As part of our active school approach and focus on science, we thought you might be interested in adding in something different to your daily walk.

After all the different kinds of weather we have been having, your poses might include freeze-frames of how you move in different types of weather.

If you do take part, please upload your photos to Evidence Me so that we can share them.

Nature Walk

What you need: an outside space

What to do:

- Head outside and find four things in nature that you can use to inspire your poses. For example, a tree or a bird.
- Using your four things, can you create a pose that represents each one?
- Can you link your four poses together to create a sequence of movements?

Next week is National Story Telling Week.

- ✓ Can you tell a story in an unusual place? Again, take a photo and send it in, so that we can share it. Last time we did this, we had photos of children telling stories to their toys under tables, sitting in deckchairs and dressed in their superhero costumes! You could always use your Reading for Pleasure books to help with the story-telling.
- ✓ We all love our practice reading-books and library books but some are staying at home. Could you have a look for them this weekend, and return them next week. Thanks!
- ✓ Little Owls' Lending Library is also starting next week. Look out for it!
