Governors' Section

Your child will bring home a paper copy of their school report next week.

If your child lives between 2 houses and you would like either 2 paper copies or 1 sent by email (please provide an email address) to a second parent/ carer, please let the School Office know by Monday 17th July. Thank you.

As we get ready for the end of the school year, we will be sending home some of your child's artwork and books. We will also be sending home their wellies and any named lost property that we can return to them. Please can you send a named bag-for life in with your child on Monday 17th so that they can carry it home.

If the weather is fine, we are planning an end-of term reward for Reception, Year 1 and Year 2. If your child is on the star / rainbow next week, they can take part in sip and slide. Please send in a PE kit (t-shirt and shorts) so that they can get changed for it and then come home in their school uniform.

Reminders - School uniform for September
