Thursday Thoughts 24th October 2024

What's on in the next few weeks?

Dates for your Diary:

Flu jabs – have you completed the permission form online? See reminder letter attached.

Friday 25th October: School closes for half term. Holiday Club is full. HAF Club will not be running during the Christmas Break.

Tuesday 5th November: Firework-themed day. Activities in school time for all our learners.

Thursday 21st November: 4.00pm to 7.00pm Open Evening for children who are due to start Reception in September 25. Visitors are also welcome to look around our pre-school provision – including our Wraparound Care for children aged from 9 months.

Asda Cashpot for Schools

We have registered our school with Asda Cashpot for Schools. So far, our cashpot contains £236. The scheme is running until the end of November. If you shop in Asda, please download their app and nominate our school. Thank you.

Feet First

Water Bottles were won by the families of:
Isla, Rio, Bella, Ella,
Toby, Oliver, Luna,
Keavah, Oliver and Aiman.

Well done!

Firework Day

On Tuesday 5th November, we will be having a firework themed day in school. There will be lots of fun activities for the children and a special firework themed lunch, followed by a firework disco. Please send your child to school wearing bright clothes and sensible footwear as the children will still be going outside at breaktimes.

Governor Section

Parking on School Road – School Road is a no drive area during drop off and collection times. There is a road traffic sign at the end of the road to remind us all. Please remember not to block our neighbours' drives. Thank you.

Miss Mooney has started her maternity leave and Miss Simpson will be the full-time class teacher until mid-November.

By the end of this week, all Key stage 1 pupils will have received their attendance letter. Mrs Hind is leading on attendance so please contact her via parent@inglewood-inf.cumbria.sch.uk if you require any support with attendance / lateness issues. Thanks.
